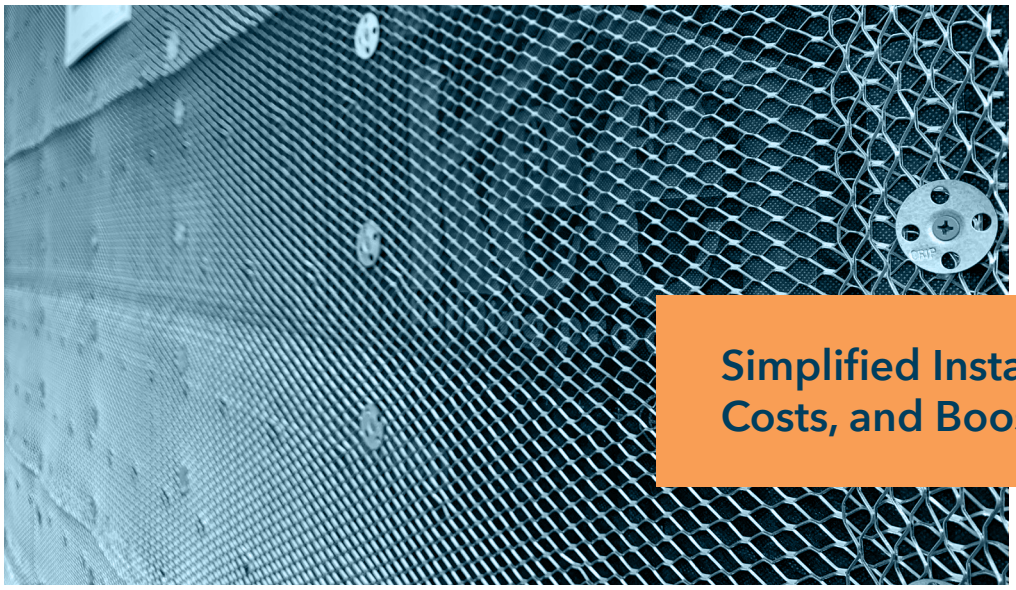
Driwall® LATHNET® BUILDING ENVELOPE SYSTEM



Simplified Installation, Reduced Labor Costs, and Boosted Thermal Performance.

FEATURES/BENEFITS

Description

Driwall™ LathNet combines galvanized metal lath with a polyethylene drainage mesh, providing a two-in-one solution that simplifies the installation process for stucco and thin-stone veneer systems. This integrated approach ensures both robust mechanical bonding for your plaster or stucco and superior drainage and ventilation.

Driwall™ LathNet is designed to simplify your installation process and reduce labor costs while boosting the thermal performance and energy efficiency of your building envelope.

Benefits

- Simplified Installation: Installs like standard metal lath, no new installation skills or tools necessary
- Reduced Labor: Faster installation and fewer wall penetrations than installing a drainage plane and lath separately
- No Clogging: Promotes full lath encapsulation without clogging the drainage plane
- Continuous Drainage: Drainage mesh edges butt together to form a continuous drainage plane
